

I was writing to comment on a current radio station I listen to on FM, called K-LOVE. It is a christian radio station, and is listened to me 100% of the time while I am at home or in the car. This radio station blesses me and thousands of others, I know. It is a great benefit to my community just for a sense of togetherness of people that have the same beliefs that I do...Keep K-LOVE on the FM dial.
